Flamengo entered the history of Brazilian football in 2019, as it became the second club in history to win the Campeonato Carioca, Campeonato Brasileiro and Copa Libertadores in the same season. Before that, only Santos had achieved this feat. This article celebrates the achievements of the club in 2019, discusses its statistics and talks about its history. Flamengo: A brief history. Founded on November 17, 1895, Flamengo is one of the most traditional and successful clubs in Brazil. The club has a large fan base throughout the country, being especially prominent in Rio de Janeiro, its home city. Over the years, Flamengo has won several titles, including the Campeonato Carioca, Campeonato Brasileiro, the Copa Libertadores and the Copa Intercontinental. Now, they have the privilege of joining the club restricted to those who have won some of the main trophies of Brazilian football in the same season. The tennis player Novak Djokovic returns to the Australian Open 2023 after the revocation of the ban on his entry into Australia, which had been imposed since his arrival in Rio de Janeiro this year. A participation of Djokovic in the tournament was vulnerable to the virtue of his status of immunization against COVID-19 and for that reason, the club refused to accept his entry into the country, which raised a series of questions, such as eligibility and the right to enter the country. A exemption was granted to Djokovic, 34 years old, who had received a vaccine to avoid the requirement of vaccination for players and the club's refusal to accept his entry into Australia. His entry into Australia was refused in the first hours of January 6 in the local time.
