arly German expressionism in the 1920s and early 1930s with films like The Cabinet and The Passion of Joan of Arc. Hollywood's early sound films like The Jazz Singer and The Singing Fool were also influential. The 1930s saw the rise of the New Criticism, which emphasized close reading of texts and the idea of the "text as a self-contained system." This led to the development of formalist and structuralist approaches to literature and art.
