A tweet from Phil Spencer, Microsoft Gaming s CEO, r ead: We are pleased to announce that Microsoft and @PlayStation have signed 27820; a binding agreement to keep Call of Duty on PlayStation following the ac quisition of Activision Blizzard. We look forward to 🍌 a future where p layers globally have more choice to play their favorite games.  In the United States, the FTC had argued 🍌 the acquisition dea
I would hurt consumers whether they played video games on consoles or had subscr ptions because Microsoft would have 🍌 an incentive to shut out rivals like Sony Group. However, Judge Jacqueline Scott Corley ruled on 11 June: The FTC has & #127820; not shown it is likely to succeed on its assertion the combined firm w ill probably pull Call of Duty from 🍌 Sony PlayStation, or that its own ership of Activision content will substantially lessen competition in the video game library subscription and 🍌 cloud gaming markets.  To address the FTC s concerns, Microsoft had agreed to license Call of Duty to rivals, including a 10-year 🍌 contract with Nintendo, contingen t on the merger closing. On Sunday, Microsoft did not disclose the duration of the agreement wit h Sony.
