The Silent Way is characterized by its focus on discovery, creativity, problem solving and the use of associated materials.

Richards and Rodgers (1986:99) summarizes the method into three major features:

Learning is facilitated if the learner discovers or creates materials.

Learning is facilitated if the learner discovers or creates materials.

The Silent Way It is based on the idea that language learning can be enhanced in three main ways:

discovery rather than teaching; problem-solving in the target language; the use of physical tools

;. Above all, like Victorian children, the teacher should be seen and not heard.
