Speaking on the meaning behind the song, she told Rolling Stone: I love this song so much because it's about real life and real people and our experiences. An underdog is someone who isn't likely to win a competition or contest. When a professional basketball player faces off against a high school student who's a foot shorter, the high schooler is the underdog. Anyone at a disadvantage, whether in general or in a particular situation, can be called an underdog.
