Asian Handicap

Asian Handicap is a type of bet that is not common in sports betting. It is also known as O.O Asian Handicap, this type of bet works as if you were betting on a particular team to win the match, without considering the possibility of a draw.

Application of the Handicap

To demonstrate how the handicap works, let's suppose a match between Arsenal and Manchester United. Making a bet on the home team to win is equivalent to having an advantage and resulting in a win in the bet. In the event of a draw, the bet is void - or, in other words, your money is returned depending on the house's betting rules. Notice that to win the bet, you must win the match, without winning by a draw. It is important to define how much to bet, especially since the bet is void in the event of a draw or a tie, so the value you would receive from the house's bets.

Differences between Handicap and other handicaps

Compared to other handicaps, the Handicap bet is only your money
